I'm publishing a magazine filled with all kinds of art that can be expressed on the page in black and white or in full color, calling it Mountain Bluebird Magazine. I invite you to submit your advertisement, and should your advertisement and what you're advertising be appropriate, to contribute.

You'll determine what you can pay to advertise. This is to create an accessible partnership between advertisers and Mountain Bluebird Magazine & Press.

Keep this in mind:

This magazine is an ode to joy and love: hard-earned and otherwise, plus elegant complexity of existence and surviving and thriving expressed artfully. Thoughtfully. Life's never easy—we need joy and love to sustain us and the people around us. Think of sensitivity as strength (it is). Think of the power of vulnerability, the strength it takes to trust, the boldness it takes to get out the door. Think of the power that resides in such a marvelous and beautiful thing as a Mountain Bluebird.

Context:

This is my project, just me, and is not community-building per se, though that can happen. Temporarily anyway. But it's not the goal. The goal is to create art. Be free. Connect with something essential. Express something urgent, something subtle, something important, something beautiful. Imperfect. Meaningful, for sure.

ADVERTISING GUIDELINES

1. Include your business name and location (you can be as specific or general as you wish).
2. Visual art and photography must be submitted with easy-to-manipulate images with easy-to-find titles, dimensions, and any words that go with. The image must be high-res at 9 inches square in print. The advertisement must be clear about what's being advertised with clear instructions on how to get in touch with your business.
3. Email to jennyforrestermedia@gmail.com subject line: Mountain Bluebird Magazine & Press. Advertising or use the form on the website. Submissions for ads are rolling. Ongoing.

All correspondence will be answered in a timely manner (no more than two weeks, and if you don't hear from me, feel free to contact me again). I reserve the right to curate all advertisements. We can't be all things to all people (and Mountain Bluebird can't be either), but we can be loving and kind and understand that we're all born to what we're born to. How we live and how we communicate matters. That's the goal. Communication. Relationship. Collaboration.

LET'S MAKE SOMETHING GOOD.

Marketing/sharing/word-of-mouth

Please. Let's advertise each other and take care of each other. You can find me on Facebook and Instagram jennyforresterauthor, too. Let people who would be into this know. Only the kind, sweet people, please. I used to tolerate bad behavior that made me very sick and cost me in every way possible. I block quick nowadays. Thanks.

This is the link to my mailchimp newsletter which could include news and such about the magazine and will also include things I do as a writer so hopefully that's interesting to you. I do appreciate when people are supportive of my own work, too. <http://eepurl.com/do2Wb1>

Donations to support this endeavor:

If you'd like to donate to this cause (and be named in the Eternal Gratitude section), email me for my Venmo and PayPal accounts. Don't worry, I won't be making money (that bothers some people, especially the people who (also) want to be paid for their art, I hear.) But, I'd love to recoup some costs, for sure. If you help me in this way, I won't forget it.
